OCTOBER 29

ANNA CASE

Anna Case, the lovely prima donna and child of fortune, was born on October 29, when the Sun was with Uranus in Scorpio and Jupiter was in Taurus, the sign that rules the throat and therefore the voice also, and was near the dramatic Neptune. The Moon, in her own sign, denoted great popularity and travel and Mars and Saturn were close together in Libra, showing that Miss Case was spurred on to success by great ambition combined with energy and enthusiasm. The conjunction of Neptune and Jupiter is found in the horoscopes of many of the public favorites of today and is an indication of unusual popularity and success.

The most magnetic and emotional orators and preachers have been born under the influence of Scorpio. It is a strong, masterful sign, and if you were bor- under its vibration it is quite possible that you can be very bitter and sarcastic when you dislike any one. You are capable of great extremes of feeling and can be very, very good or very, very bad. You are determined, tenacious, keen and shrewd in a business deal, very critical of others and extremely secretive about your own affairs. You should be on your guard in financial matters during the next twelve months; do not lend money nor take unnecessary financial risks. Like Cancer and Pisces, Scorpio is a water sign and therefore its people are deeply emotional, but there is a fixity of purpose about them that is lacking in those born under the other water signs.

OF NEW YORK, GENERAL OFFICE,

TAN.

day, November 2d, 1926, the following officers may be voted for in the County of New York:—

Lieutenant Governor.
State Comptroller.

Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals.
Associate Judge of the Court of Appeals.

Also the following proposition and proposition will be submitted to electors for their approval or disapproval:— One question addressed to all electors of the State of New York calling for the modification of the Federal Government Act to enforce the 18th Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
One proposition which, if adopted, restricts the power of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment so as to prevent an increased fare on rapid transit or street railways in the city without the approval of a majority of the electors of the City of New York.
JOHN R. VOORHIS,
CHARLES E. HEYDT,
JAMES KANE,
JACOB A. LIVINGSTON,
Commissioners of Elections.

THE HALL-MILLS CASE

A ramshackle, tumble-down structure which has borne the brunt of the storm King's ire, the old Phillips farmhouse presents a sequestered retreat for clandestine lovers, and it was here that Dr.
Hall and Mrs. Mills kept their trysts, far removed, at least so they thought, from the prying eyes of curious church members.

Leading up to the farmhouse, De Russey's Lane came to be better known as Lover's Lane, for each night found it lined with parked autos, the lights of which were out while the occupants engaged in what is commonly termed "necking" parties, unabashed by the close proximity of other couples and caring nought whether anybody spied on them.

Written big in the memory of Pearl Bahmer is the gruesome discovery of which she was a party under the old crabapple trees on the Phillips farm, a sight etched in fire on her mind and one she probably will never forget, the awful terror of it still gripping her and unabated by the flight of time.

With Pearl on Sept. 16, 1922, was Ray Schneider, who had joined her to hunt mushrooms on the farm, little realizing that a strange fate was directing them into a channel from which they were to emerge frightened and find themselves engulfed in one of the queerest crimes.
